- 5.5 The Customer shall pay to the Bank fees and expenses which are charged at the Bank's discretion in respect of the overdraft, including, without limitation, taxes and registration costs incurred or charged by the Bank in connection with the negotiation, preparation, investigation, administration, supervision or enforcement of the Customer's overdraft or any security.
- 5.6 The Bank shall not be regarded as having implicitly agreed to an overdraft or an increased Authorised Overdraft limit if the Bank honours and pays a check or other item issued by the Customer that causes an Account to be overdrawn or exceed any Authorised Overdraft limit.
- 5.7 So long as any overdraft exists under this Agreement, the Customer will ensure that all amounts outstanding under such overdraft will at all times rank at least pari passu in right of repayment and in point of security with all Customer's other present and future unsubordinated and unpreferred indebtedness.

The Bank will disburse funds in accordance with the standing order, such disbursement to be completed on the payment date if the receiving account is located in The Cayman Islands. If the receiving account is located outside of The Cayman Islands, the Bank will complete the disbursement in accordance with the Bank's then existing procedures, and the Bank will have no liability of any kind whatsoever to the Customer or any third party for any delay in receipt of a disbursement by a receiving bank.

- 6.3 The Bank may in its sole discretion cancel a standing order if there are insufficient funds in the relevant Account to complete the standing order on 3 (three) occasions. If the Bank in its sole discretion honours the standing order such that a negative balance is created in the Account, unless the Customer has an Authorised Overdraft the negative balance shall be treated as an Unauthorised Overdraft in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Agreement, and the Bank will not be obliged to notify the Customer of the creation of such an Unauthorised Overdraft.

Security Codes are for individual use alone and the Customer will ensure they are kept secure and confidential. The Customer will under no circumstances permit a Security Code to be disclosed except in accordance with this Agreement. 16.1 The Customer agrees and authorises the Bank to place a “hold” on funds in any Account:

16.1.1 subject to the Bank’s cheque hold policy in effect from time to time, restricting the Customer’s right to make a withdrawal based on any non-cash Instrument until the Bank receives actual irrevocable payment from the drawee. Any credit to an Account for any non-cash Instrument before the Bank receives actual irrevocable payment is provisional and subject to reversal;

16.1.2 if the Bank becomes aware of suspicious or possible fraudulent or unauthorised Account activity that may cause a loss to the Customer, the Bank or an identifiable third party;

16.1.3 if an issue arises as to whom are the proper signing authorities on any Account. The Customer authorises the Bank to make such inquiries and perform such searches, at the Customer expense, as the Bank deems necessary, and the Bank may apply, at the Customer expense, to any court of competent jurisdiction (a “Court”) seeking directions; or 16.1.4 if, in the Bank’s sole opinion, a potentially legitimate claim is made by a third party on those funds, and if not resolved in a reasonable amount of time, the Bank may apply to Court seeking directions, at the Customer expense.

16.2 The Bank will not be liable for any loss for following or disregarding any Instructions to place or remove a hold.

17. Instructions to Stop Payment

17.1 The Bank will endeavour to effect Instructions to cancel any payment provided that:

17.1.1 the Instructions shall be in writing and notice of at least one Business Day has been given;

17.1.2 the payment is not guaranteed in any way;

17.1.3 the Bank has not already processed the payment instruction; or

17.1.4 the Bank has not advised the beneficiary bank that it will make the payment.

17.2 An Instruction to cancel a payment must include the Account number, the number or other relevant identifying feature, date, name of payee, amount and currency denomination of the relevant Instrument (Stop Payment request). Any such Instruction will be effective in accordance with the Bank's practice in force from time to time.

17.3 The Customer agrees to indemnify the Bank in respect of all liabilities, expenses, costs or legal fees which the Bank may incur as a result of the cancellation or non-payment of any Instruction or Instrument. The Customer shall have no claim against the Bank if an Instruction or Instrument is honoured notwithstanding subsequent Instructions to the contrary.

17.4 The Customer agrees that a Stop Payment request may be processed by the Bank without further investigation. The party making the Stop Payment Request is deemed to have the Customer authority to do so. The Bank will attempt to carry out Stop Payment requests for the Customer convenience only, provided the Bank is not liable for complying with or failing to comply with a Stop Payment request, even if such failure is as a result of the Bank's negligence.

18. Foreign Currency Transactions

For any Instructions relating to a foreign currency, the Bank will convert the funds on Account to the appropriate currency at the standard applicable exchange rate set by the Bank at the time the Bank completes the transaction and the Customer's Account will be charged or credited, as applicable, for the converted amount in the currency of that Account, plus applicable fees and taxes.

19. Trusts/Trust Accounts

19.1 The Customer acknowledges that the Bank is not:

19.1.1 acting as trustee for any Account, including any holdback account established pursuant to this Agreement;

19.1.2 required to recognise or uphold any funds or property as being held under trust obligations, even if the Bank is delivered a trust document in relation thereto; or

19.1.3 required to supervise the operation of any Account or property held by the Bank to ensure that it is operated in accordance with the provisions of any trust, whether or not the Bank has notice of the existence of any such trust or the specific provisions governing the same.

19.2 Any Account or property held whether subject to a trust, or not, will be operated by the Bank pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in the same manner as any other account, and the Customer will indemnify, the Bank in accordance with this Agreement. If, for the Customer convenience, the Bank does follow Instructions to describe an Account as a "trust" in its records, this will in no way cause a waiver of any of rights or defences under this Agreement.

20. Termination and Changes

20.1 The Bank reserves the right to terminate this Agreement or any Account or restrict the Customer use of any product or service, including Remote Banking, at any time without notice to the Customer.

20.2 Subject to Section 10, the Bank may at any time change this Agreement by providing the Customer with at least 30 (thirty) calendar days' written notice posted in either the Bank branches or on the Bank website. If the Customer issues any Instruction or continues to access an Account or Remote Banking after the effective date of a change to this Agreement, the Customer will be deemed to have been notified and agreed to all changes.

20.3 The Customer may terminate this Agreement, or any Account, by written notice to the Bank delivered to the branch where its Account is maintained. Termination will take effect immediately upon actual receipt of the notice by the Bank.

21. Transaction Records and Verification

21.1 The Bank will make available to the Customer Transaction Records or Statements of Account, either by ordinary mail to the Customer most recent mailing address appearing on its records or through such other method as applicable to the Account. Statements of Account and Transaction Records will be available to the Customer each time it accesses Remote Banking.

21.2 Whether a Transaction Record is issued or not, the Customer agrees to ensure that Instructions have been properly executed and accurately recorded on Transaction Records. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the Bank records are conclusive proof for all purposes, including litigation, of transactions or Instructions made, including without limitation, the date the Statement of Account was made available, the making of a withdrawal, deposit or transfer, and any other matter or thing relating to an Account.

21.3 The Customer is deemed to have received and be aware of all transactions disclosed on each Transaction Record or Statement of Account for the preceding month, whether the Customer actually receives one or not, on the earlier of: the day the Customer actually receives a Transaction Record or Statement of Account; the day on which the Customer becomes aware of facts that reasonably put it on enquiry as to the possibility of errors, omissions or irregularities affecting its Account including any fraud or unauthorised activity; or 10 (ten) calendar days after the last day of each month whether the Customer actually receives a Transaction Record or Statement of Account or not. The Customer will further be deemed to have received a Statement of Account each time it accesses Remote Banking.

- 21.4 The Customer will notify the Bank in writing if the Customer does not receive any Transaction Record within the time period the Customer should have received it. If the Customer elects not to receive a Statement of Account, the Customer waives its right of protest.
- 21.5 Promptly upon receipt of each Statement of Account, and in any event no less than 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date on which the Customer is deemed to have received that Statement of Account (“30 Day Review”), the Customer agrees to examine and verify, each entry appearing on a Statement of Account, reconcile it with the Customer’s own records and immediately notify the Bank in writing of any errors, omissions, irregularities, including any fraudulent or unauthorised transactions or any other objections the Customer has to that Statement of Account (collectively, “Account Irregularities”). If the Customer fails to notify the Bank, within the 30 Day Review, the balance shown on the Statement of Account(s) and all entries, including any Account Irregularities, will be deemed correct, complete, authorised and binding upon the Customer and the Bank will be released from all liability for any transaction occurring up to the date of the most recent Statement of Account except for transactions the Customer gave notice of in accordance with this section.
- 21.6 If the Customer becomes aware of facts that reasonably puts it on enquiry as to the possibility of errors, omissions or irregularities affecting the Customer’s Accounts including any fraud or unauthorised activity, it will immediately notify the Bank so as to prevent any ongoing fraud or unauthorised activity. If the Customer fails to do so, any preventable subsequent losses will not be the Bank’s responsibility.
- 21.7 In addition to the consequences set out elsewhere, if the Customer fails to abide by its obligations under this section of the Agreement, and if the Customer’s conduct or omission causes or contributes to a loss on its Account, (losses of any kind whatsoever, taxes, levies, fines or penalties suffered and/or incurred by, or brought against, the Bank) then the Customer agrees that the Bank will not have any responsibility to the Customer with respect to such loss. The Customer acknowledges that failure to review Statements of Account in a timely manner as required pursuant to this Agreement will be deemed to cause or contribute to the loss on the Account to the extent of any loss occurring subsequent to the time that any error, omission would have been discovered, if the Statement of Account or Transaction Records had been reviewed in accordance with this Agreement. The Customer acknowledges that the Bank’s maximum liability to the Customer will be limited to actual direct loss in the principal amount wrongfully or erroneously withdrawn from the Customer’s Account due to the Bank’s gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- 21.8 The Customer will not object to the admission of the Bank’s records, including Statements of Account, as evidence in any legal proceeding on the ground that such records are not originals, are not in writing, are hearsay, or are documents containing information extracted from a computer. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the Bank’s records are conclusive for all purposes, including litigation, in respect of any Instructions given by the Customer to the Bank, and any other matter or thing relating to the state of Accounts between the Customer and the Bank in respect of any transaction.

23. Limitation of Liability

23.1 Without limiting the effect of any other liability sections in this Agreement, the Customer agrees that the Bank will not be held liable and is hereby released from all liabilities, claims and losses sustained in connection with this Agreement or any Account unless the claim or loss was solely caused by the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of the Bank.

23.2 Without limiting the foregoing, the Bank will not be held liable and is hereby released from all liabilities, claims and losses incurred in relation to the operation of any Account or any dealings the Customer may have with the Bank including but not limited to:

The Customer also agrees not to grant any rights of subrogation as against the Bank arising from losses actually covered.

The Bank may collect and disclose credit and other financially-related information about the Customer from and to credit reporting agencies, credit insurers and other credit grantors, as necessary to provide products and services requested by the Customer. The Bank may use information relating to the Customer (including credit and other financially-related information) and disclose it to HSBC Group or third parties located outside the Cayman Islands as it solely deems appropriate in order to establish and manage, market or promote products and services to the

If the Customer applies for a current account or credit the Bank may use details of the Customer's credit history (together with those of any financial associate with whom the Customer financial records have been linked by the CRAs) to assess the Customer's ability to meet financial commitments.

27.2.2 If the Customer's application is for a current account or credit, the CRAs will record details of the Customer's application which will form part of its credit history whether or not it proceeds. If the Customer makes several applications for credit within a short period of time, this may temporarily affect its ability to obtain credit.

27.2.3 Where the Customer has agreed in an application, the Bank may share details of how the Customer manages any current accounts or borrowing from the Bank with CRAs.

27.2.4 If the Bank makes demand for repayment following any default by the Customer and the Customer fails to repay the sum due in full or makes (and adheres to) acceptable proposals for repayment within 30 (thirty) days, then, in the absence of any genuine dispute about the amount owed, the Bank may register the default with the CRAs. The Customer agrees that the Bank, its affiliates, and its providers will not be responsible or liable to the Customer or any other person (whether a natural person or any type of incorporated or unincorporated entity or organization) for any loss or damage suffered as a result of the use of unencrypted email or the Internet to communicate with the Bank, its affiliates or its providers or as a result of either (i) the Customer's use of unencrypted email or the Internet to communicate with the Bank, its affiliates or providers or (ii) the Customer's request that the Bank, its affiliates or its providers use unencrypted email or the Internet to communicate with the Customer (or such other person(s) as the Customer shall direct).

The Bank may take, and may instruct other members of the HSBC Group (and may be instructed by other members of the HSBC Group) to take any action which the Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion, consider appropriate to take to comply with any such HSBC policies, laws and regulations to which you or any other member of the HSBC Group is subject. Such action may include but is not limited to: the interception and investigation of any payment messages and other information or Instructions sent to or by the Customer or on its behalf via the Bank's systems or any other member of the HSBC Group's systems; and making further enquiries as to whether a name which might refer to a sanctioned person or entity actually refers to that person or entity.

28.2 Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, neither the Bank nor any member of the HSBC Group will be liable for loss of any kind or whatsoever, taxes, levies, fines, fees or penalties suffered and/or incurred by, or brought against, the Bank (whether direct, consequential or loss of profit, data or interest) or damage suffered by any party arising out of:

28.2.1 any delay or failure by the Bank or any member of the HSBC Group in performing any of its duties under this Agreement or other obligations caused in whole or in part by any steps which the Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion, consider appropriate to take in accordance with all such HSBC policies, laws and regulations; or 30.1 The Customer may only change Authorised Signatories by delivering Instructions in accordance with the Bank procedures in place from time to time. The Bank will not be responsible for making changes without proper notification or with improperly completed documentation. Changes will only be effective after the Bank has accepted notice of the change and updated its records accordingly. If, for any reason, the Bank determines that required documentation has not been duly completed, authorised, ratified or approved, or is deficient in some other respect, the Bank may decline to change Authorised Signatories and may place a "hold" on funds in any Account in accordance with this Agreement, or suspend any dealings with the Customer.

If the Bank takes Proceedings against the Customer in any one or more jurisdictions, it shall not be precluded from taking Proceedings in any other jurisdiction (whether concurrently or not) if and to the extent possible.

32.6 The Customer hereby irrevocably agrees not to claim and irrevocably waives any immunity from suit, execution, attachment or other legal process that it may claim in any jurisdiction for itself and its assets to the full extent permitted by the laws of such jurisdiction.

32.7 If any part of this Agreement is held unenforceable for any reason, the unenforceable portion of this Agreement will not affect the enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, which will continue in full force and effect as if this Agreement had been executed without the unenforceable portion.

32.8 The Customer shall not create any encumbrance over any right or interest of the Customer in an Account without the prior written consent of the Bank.

32.9 The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and in any order and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

32.10 If in the Bank's opinion, any law or regulation, change in any law or regulation or change in its interpretation makes it unlawful for the Bank to make available or maintain all or part of this Agreement or to perform any of its obligations in relation to them, then the Bank will give notice to this effect on the Customer and the Bank shall then be discharged from its obligations to make available, renew or maintain this Agreement and the Customer shall pay the Bank on demand or on the date specified by the Bank as being the latest date for compliance with the relevant law or regulation, all amounts then due and to become due under this Agreement to the Bank.

32.11 Without prejudice to any other provision of this Agreement, the Bank will not by any act, delay, indulgence or omission be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any breach of any of this Agreement. A waiver by the Bank of any right or remedy hereunder on one occasion will not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Bank would otherwise have on any future occasion. If the Bank does exercise any right or remedy hereunder, it is not under any obligation to do so at a time or in a manner beneficial to the Customer.

32.12 This Agreement together with the application form supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, representations and negotiations in relation to the matters referred to in this Agreement.

32.13 Unless otherwise specifically provided, the singular includes the plural and vice versa. The headings, table of contents or section titles are for reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.
